Some partial scholarships available.

Support healthy sexuality, body image, and self care from the framework of nonviolence.

When we, mothers and fathers can be comfortable talking to our children, supporting their natural curiosity about themselves and others we can answer the hard questions children will ask about bodies and sexual things. Through our support and openness, children will grow up with a matter-of-fact feeling that sex is natural, bodies need to be respected and that one can ask questions that the adults will be available to answer.

This class will be held in a private home in Redondo Beach. Directions provided upon registration.

Space is limited, so register now.
