

Translating Evaluative Words (What you think others are doing TO you)

These feelings and needs are suggestions only; this listing is neither complete nor definite. It is intended as an aid to translating evaluative words, which are often confused with feelings. These words imply that someone is doing something to you and generally connote wrongness or blame. To use this list: when somebody says "I'm feeling rejected," a giraffe might empathetically translate, "Are you feeling scared because you have a need for inclusion?"
