

2016 Changing the Paradigm Conference

"Children, Families, & Schools: Building Trauma-Informed Communities"

March 16 & 17, 2016

The California Endowment, 1000 N. Alameda St. Los Angeles, CA 90012

Call for Exhibitors

Each year, Echo Parenting & Education hosts the "Changing the Paradigm Conference" to bring together researchers or specialists and those who work with children and families to translate cutting edge science and innovation into practice. This year, our focus is on creating physically and emotionally safe schools and communities, applying information on childhood trauma, resiliency building and attachment so that adults and children can enjoy compassionate, connected relationships. The conference draws over 300 parents, teachers, administrators, social service workers and therapists who are all hungry to learn best practices from the "frontiers of innovation."

Exhibitors

Echo Parenting & Education invites organizations to submit applications to host tabletop exhibits during the conference on Wednesday, March 16 and Thursday, March 17, 2016. Exhibitors will be selected based on their relevance to the conference theme: building trauma-informed schools and communities.

If you are interested in exhibiting, please complete the attached application form and return it via mail or email. Limited spaces are available on a first come, first served basis (subject to approval).

Exhibitors will not be permitted to sell merchandise (books, DVDs, etc.) during the conference.

Fee: $500

Your fee includes one tabletop exhibit for both days, and one conference registration. Additional exhibitors will be required to pay the regular conference rate.

Application Deadline: December 31th, 2015

Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis until December 31th, 2015. Notice of selection will be made by January 15, 2016. Further information will be provided to the selected exhibitors at that time.

Completed proposals should be mailed or emailed/submitted online to:
