

2019 Information

Echo is now accepting applications for the 2019 Trauma-Informed Nonviolent Child Raising Training and Certification Course (TCC). This course will provide participants with in-depth training in the revised version of the Echo parenting curriculum, which reflects an attachment-based, nonviolent approach to child-raising that is rooted in an understanding of trauma. At the end of the 6-day course, successful participants will be certified as an Echo parent educator.

COURSE DATES

ORIENTATION: Friday, October 4th, 2019 (5-7pm)
6 Sundays starting November 3 - December 15, 2019 (all day)
(there will be a break for Thanksgiving on December 1, 2019)

Participants are invited to attend the 10-class parenting series on Saturdays starting October 5, 2019 (or for out-of-town participants, the Weekend Intensive. (August 17 & 18, 2019).

Attendance at a 10-class parenting series or Weekend Intensive within the last 12-months is a pre-requisite for TCC.

COURSE CONTENT

Participants will study the principles and practice of trauma-informed nonviolent child-raising, as well as the research that informs it. In an alive, creative and dynamic learning environment, participants will be immersed in the philosophical underpinnings and pedagogical framework for teaching parent education in multiple settings.

Participants will have the opportunity of shadowing the 10-class parenting series led by senior Echo parent educators, and attending the facilitator debrief after each class.
