

Seeking Safety Parenting Classes

Saturdays | January 11 - March 28, 2020

Parenting is one of the most creative and exhausting jobs you'll ever have. Sometimes you'll find yourself saying or doing things to your child you swore you would never do.

Echo facilitates Seeking Safety Parenting Classes and teaches Trauma-Informed Nonviolent Parenting on Saturday mornings in Echo Park.

Seeking Safety classes allows parents a safe space to discuss their struggles and supports parents in finding safer coping strategies for themselves and their children. The Trauma-Informed Parenting Class series includes the latest science on the brain and childhood trauma and gives parents many tools for creating the kind of safe, stable nurturing relationship we all want with our children and underpins healthy development.

Parents needing a certificate of completion are required to take the 20 week series that includes both the Seeking Safety Parenting Classes and the Trauma-Informed Nonviolent Parenting Class series.
